Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho - - - ly

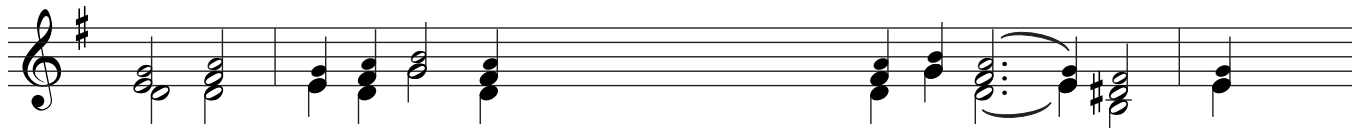

Spir - - - it:

STICHERON:

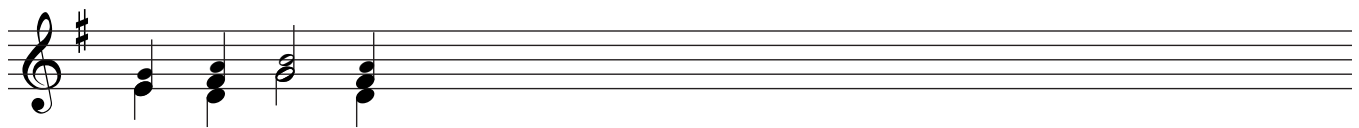

On Kodiak Island, O Her - man, thy glorification has been shown to us as a fa-ther's gift to his children in the Spir - it. As from the face of Mo-ses, the giv - er of the Law, the veil has been lift - ed, and the glo - ry thou didst behold in thy closet is now broadcast to the ends of land and sea. May God lead us by thy light, O her - mit, through the dark places of the de - sert of this earth, pow - er-less though

[we be to gaze...]

we be to gaze upon the fullness of that bright - ness. Walking with thee in Christ's law of love, may we behold at sojourn's end the Pascha of the ex - alt - ed Cross, bathed in the Res - ur - rec - tion's light: the Cross thou hast planted firmly in A - mer - i - ca, // the Cross which the Son of God has as - cend - ed to save the world.

CANONARCH: Now and ever in the same tone!

Now and ever and unto ages of ag - - - es. A - - - men.

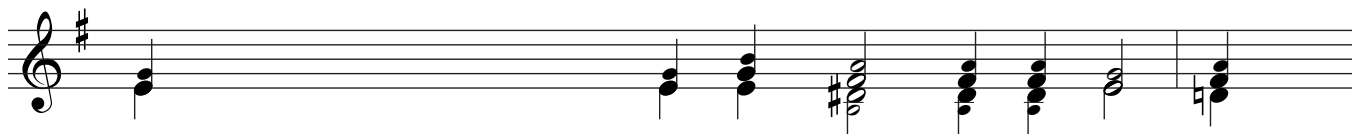

STICHERON:

To - day on Mount Ta - bor, O Lord, Thou hast shown the glory of Thy di - vine - form to Thy cho - sen Disciples, Pe - ter, James and John.

For they looked upon Thy garments that gleamed like the light and at Thy face that shone more than the sun. Un - a - ble to endure the vision of Thy brightness that none can bear, they fell to the earth, power-less to gaze at the sight, for they heard a voice that bore wit-ness from a-bove: "This is My be-lov - èd Son // Who has come in - to the world to save man - kind!"
